

FORMALITY

Visa

Passports of all visitors must be valid for at least six months after entry date. Visas for 30 days can be issued on arrival, but it is recommended that visitors obtain visas prior to arrival if an embassy is available in your country. At least one blank page is needed in passports, reserved for use by the Madagascar Immigration Authorities. Return or onward tickets are required; otherwise a deposit must be paid before arriving in Madagascar, which is equivalent to the cost of a flight to the country of origin.

For stays over three months nationals will need to apply for a long stay visa from the Madagascan Ministry of Interior.

For the transit passengers continuing their journey by the same or first connecting aircraft within 24 hours provided, holding onward or return documentation and not leaving the airport is obligatory.

Note 1: Return or onward tickets are required.

Note 2: Nationals not referred to in the chart below are advised to contact the embassy to check visa requirements (see Contact Addresses).

Americans - UK nationals- Canadians- Australians- South Africans- Irish nationals -New Zealanders: These nationalities require a valid passport and a visa to enter Madagascar. A 90-day visa can be obtained on arrival.

Types of Visa and Cost

Tourist: On arrival, free (30 days); beforehand £45 (90 days); multiple-entry.

Business: £50 single-entry, £55 multiple-entry.

Working Days Required

Same day (personal applications); up to three days (postal applications).
